F. Monitoring of the system

School and network administrators and their authorized employees monitor the use of information technology resources to help ensure that users are secure and conform with this policy. Administrators reserve the right to examine, use, and disclose any data found on the school's information networks and equipment in order to further the health, safety, discipline, security of any student and community member, or to protect property. They may also use this information in disciplinary actions. Students and community members are reminded that digital communication is never private and that they should send messages as if they will be read by anyone. There are to be no derogatory, slanderous, misleading, or otherwise inappropriate exchanges.

G. Consequences

Consequences for violations of the responsible use agreement vary depending on the severity of the violation. Disciplinary action may include, but is not limited to, the loss of privileges to use the school's information technology resources, administrative meetings with the parties involved, detention, suspension or expulsion.
