Superintendent Rich Polkinghorn shared the following information with the Board:

COVID Update

Polkinghorn noted the expected surge in COVID cases had arrived in Hood River County, seeing nearly 300 cases of COVID amongst our students. He noted this is the highest number of infections the district has seen thus far in the pandemic. He shared State epidemiologists expect this surge in Oregon to peak this week, and the hope is the surge recedes as quickly as it peaked. Polkinghorn stated the best way we can protect each other and our community is to continue to wear our face coverings when indoors, wash our hands, maintain a safe physical distance, stay home and get tested if you are sick, and get vaccinated and boosted. He noted this is a community effort that will continue to help keep our schools open.

Contact Tracing

Polkinghorn shared two weeks ago the Oregon Health Authority notified schools that they can refrain from contract tracing. He set up a meeting with the Hood River County Health Department and with Hood River County's Public Health Officer, Dr. Van Tilburg to provide us direction and counsel on this recommendation from OHA. The recommendations from the Health Department and Dr. Van Tilburg was to continue to follow the layered mitigation strategies as the most effective means in preventing transmission. He noted staff will be committing their time to ensuring enforcement of the layered mitigation strategies, and identifying symptomatic students, testing them and sending them home if positive.

Live Streaming

Polkinghorn noted his announcement earlier to district families an end to live-streaming classes. He shared that since the start of the school year, students that were in isolation and/or quarantined were offered the option to live stream their class. He stated this seemed like a good idea in the fall, when students would be isolated and/or quarantined for 14 days, but now that the isolation/quarantine period is only five days, the necessity to livestream is diminished. Additionally, he shared that the administration and staff overwhelmingly agreed that the live streaming is not effective, and widely not accessed. Instead the district will be shifting focus to bolstering and enhancing Google Classrooms. The Google Classroom is the tool students use now, and will use in the future to access their learning materials. Principals and working with their staff to ensure their Google Classrooms are up to date and updated regularly.

ELA Adoption

Polkinghorn shared that the K-5 ELA adoption team has successfully selected two curricula to pilot this spring: Benchmark and Savvas. He gave a shout out to Director Newton and Assistant Director McConnell for successfully navigating this process with the adoption team. He stated the curriculum adoption team will present a recommendation to the board sometime this spring. Polkinghorn stated this adoption is arguably the most important of all the curriculum we adopt because teaching our students how to read and write is foundational to everything else we do.

Agriculture MOU

Polkinghorn shared that one of tonight's action items is for the Board of Directors to offer their support of a Memorandum of Understanding between the School District, Hood River Valley Parks and Recreation District and Columbia Gorge Community College. He shared these three organizations have been in high level discussions about creating a strategic partnership that will bring the Agriculture, Technology, Education sectors in alliance toward creating an Agriculture Program of Study with an innovation farm at its center for the purpose to equip our students with the knowledge and skills to work in an agriculture industry that is rapidly evolving toward more and more technology implementation.

School Board Appreciation

Polkinghorn shared that January is School Board Appreciation month. He took a moment to personally thank each of the board members for their commitment to our community. He noted it is quite a lot of work to be a school board member, but to be an engaged, informed and active school board member, like each of you are, it takes an incredible amount of time, energy, and emotion. He stated on behalf of the Hood River County School District staff, students, and our community, a thank you to the board.

Gorge Stem Hub Award

Polkinghorn publicly congratulated HRVHS's Amy Foley for being named Gorge Stem Hub Educator of the Year. Foley has been a teacher at HRVHS for most of her tenure at HRVHS she taught science. A few years ago, she and her colleague, Kathryn Davis, approached Polkinghorn about starting a Computer Science program at HRVHS. Foley's development of the program and leadership of the growth of computer science in Hood River County won her an award for it. Polkinghorn congratulated Foley for this award and for her tremendous efforts to make computer sciences accessible and engaging for students.

She noted it was a lot of work to get a program like hers off the ground and be so successful. Hosford gave a shout out to Stephanie Hoppe for putting together the board recognition presentation noting board members do it for the right reasons including the kids and buildings. Hosford noted that the district has a reason to celebrate in that a graduate of the district, Sean Fitzsimmons is representing the USA Olympic team in slopestyle snowboarding. She noted this a great reflection of the community and family and his own grit and desire. She also recognized the teachers that crossed his paths along the way noting it all plays into his success. Hosford re-emphasized some words that were used at the board meeting tonight because of how important they are to who they are as a board and a school district; growth, playbook, value, alignment, training, strengthening, collaboration, organization, successes, support staff, AVID. Hosford stated we need to stop pointing fingers and need to begin celebrating that they successfully weathered a difficult storm.

Director Brandi Sheppard

Director Sheppard thanked all district staff for working so hard to keep schools open. She congratulated Amy Foley on her award and she thought that was great. She shared how excited she was to hear about the AVID presentation and that AVID always impresses her. She thinks the commitment to expand that program is fantastic. Sheppard noted her excitement for the MOU presented tonight and that she feels it could be beneficial to a lot of students in our community.

Director Corinda Hankins-Elliott

Director Hankins-Elliott congratulated Amy Foley on her award and is glad the program has grown so successful and continues to grow. She shared her excitement about the district's eighth unmodified opinion. She shared her love for the AVID program and she thinks it emphasizes the rigor of instruction and the district's commitment to that. She noted excitement for expansion of the CTE programming with the Agriculture MOU that was presented tonight. Hankins-Elliott asked the community to keep up the hard work in regards to COVID and the commitment to the mitigation factors.

Director Julia Garcia-Ramirez

She thanked everyone for their hard work and ensuring the district's finances are in compliance. She gave thanks to everyone who presented and she appreciated all the information that was given. Garcia-Ramirez noted that it just confirms all the great things that are happening in the district. She thanked everyone for the recognition to the school board and shared that she needs to update her information listed in her bio. She noted it has been an honor to serve on the school board for almost 9 years.

Director Jen Kelly

Director Kelly shared she was thrilled that students are still in school and spoke to Superintendent Polkinghorn stating she appreciated his effort towards that. She also thanked the teachers and everyone involved as she shared she knows it's not easy. Kelly wanted to re-share clarification information that was given to her by Superintendent Polkinghorn that was helpful and encouraging to her, that relative to closures and going to remote learning, it's student before class, class before school, and then school before district. She explained that the district is not treating the notion of going into remote learning in the same way the district approaches inclement weather events. She continued that to mean if a tipping point was met at the high school that does not mean that at the middle school and elementary schools will close. Kelly noted this is a great way to keep as many kids in school as possible without closing it all down. Kelly brought forth the idea of going back to in-person board meetings, noting she wanted to respect that everyone has different levels of risk aversion to that and she is mindful of that, but she wanted the board to start the conversation of when those could be possible again.

Director Tom Scully

Director Scully congratulated Doug Holmes and his team on the success of this audit. He shared his fond memories of the district's first unmodified report in 2015 as a member of the budget committee. He shared one of the biggest things the board does is set the budget and ensure the monies are used appropriately. Scully noted how in previous years there were many challenges with funding, teacher challenges, overcrowded classrooms, and now the ship has been righted. Scully recommended honoring the business services department during recognition and good news for all their work.

Director Chrissy Reitz

Director Reitz congratulated Amy Foley noting what a huge well deserved honor she won. Reitz noted she sits on the ELA curriculum adoption team and in a meeting the other day she was listening to the staff discuss which curriculums to pilot and she was blown away with their knowledge, their passion, and their desire to work as a cohesive group. She shared how impressed she was with the curriculum development team. Lastly, she gave a shout out to district substitutes noting the district is still standing in many ways because of substitute educators and staff who have filled in the gaps. Reitz noted it was her honor to serve on this board.

RE: Approve Resolution #21-22/04 CGESD Local Service Plan

EXPLANATION:

Columbia Gorge ESD (CGESD) works to increase and improve programs and funding that support students and families in Hood River and Wasco Counties. In Hood River County School District (HRCSD) the STEM Hub, Playworks, early learning, parenting education, and new teacher mentoring are some of the initiatives facilitated by CGESD. The mission of Columbia Gorge ESD is to assist Hood River and Wasco County School districts and the Department of Education in achieving Oregon's educational goals by providing equitable, high quality, cost effective and locally responsive educational services at a regional level. One method used to ensure services are responsive to local district needs is the Local Service Plan. The Local Service Plan describes the services that are provided by CGESD to each district within the CGESD region during the 2022-23 school year. These services use state school dollars and local taxes allocated to CGESD and spent on behalf of each district within the service region. Any remaining allocated funds not delivered in services are sent to districts in the form of flow-through dollars.

I am asking that you approve the 2022-23 local service plan, detailing services that will be provided to constituent districts (including HRCSD) by Columbia Gorge ESD in the 2022-23 school year. Thank you, Pat Sublette, Superintendent, Columbia Gorge ESD

PRESENTER: Rich Polkinghorn, Superintendent

SUPPLEMENTARY
MATERIALS: CGESD Local Service Plan
