

Dear HRMS Families,

This newsletter has information on Fall Parent Conferences, HRCSD's survey on Comprehensive Distance Learning, this week's principal's chat, and the October Middle Years.

Fall Parent Teacher Conferences

Our Fall Conferences are scheduled through October 29 at a variety of times. Please use the below links to schedule a conference with your child's teachers. If a teacher's time slots are full, don't forget that every teacher has family contact hours from 11:30 - 12:00 every day.

HRCSD Seeks Feedback on Distance Learning

HRCSD appreciates families' time and effort dedicated toward supporting their student(s) during online learning. Please take 10 minutes or so to complete the Online HRCSD Distance Learning Feedback to share about your experiences with online learning, either through CDL or Hood River Options Academy (HROA). HRCSD staff and teachers strive to improve programs and services for students, and your input is valued.

Principal's Chat

This week's chat includes an introduction to Ms. Melody Shellman, a new Mystery Staff Person, Tech Tips, Earthquake and Information on Progress Reports/Conferences for the Students, Panther Pride/More Alike Than Different Recognitions, and "Beanboozled"! Please watch here.

October Middle Years

The (attached) October edition of the Middle Years has some great information setting limits for middle schoolers, advice for parents on how to help your kids to stay on top of their assignments, a great tip on the 20-20-20 rule for looking at screens, academic honesty when learning from home.

Please let me know if you have any questions, concerns, or words of praise for the people or programs of Hood River Middle School. Have a great day!

Brent

Brent M. Emmons, Principal
