

Teaching Strategies for Student Engagement

Engagement = Students Say, Write, or Do

(Elementary: Every 3-4 Minutes

Secondary: Every 7-10 Minutes)

10-2 Rule

3-2-1 Summary

4 A's

60 Second Power Write

Appointment Clock / Quadrant

Partners

Bingo

Cold Calling

Concept Attainment

Concept Map

Cornell Notes

Domain Worksheet

Draw, Tell, Listen

Entry Prompts

Find Someone Who

Four Corners

Frayer Model

Gallery Walk

Give One – Get One

Graffiti

Graphic Organizers (for non-linguistic note-taking)

Inside / Outside Circle

Jigsaw

KWL

Mind Map

Numbered Heads Together

Paired Reading

Pivot A-B

Place Your Bets

Placemat

Quick Sketch

RAFT

Response Cards

Round Robin / Round Table

S-O-S

Say and Switch

Self-Assessment

Summary

Task Cards

The Final Word

Think Time

Think-Pair-Share

Three Step Interview

Thumbs Up – Thumbs Down

Ticket Out the Door

Traffic Light

Value Lines (birthday lineup, Living Likert)

Whiteboards

Write Around

There are many more engagement strategies – too many to list them all here. Not sure what they are, or how they work? Google search, “learning strategies.”