The ratio of boys to girls in a classroom is 2 to 3. Use this ratio to find at least 2 different possibilities of how many boys and how many girls are in the classroom. Explain how you know your answers are correct.